Administrative Reports

President John Roskovics stated the City is paying the county almost $92,000, twice a year, to collect property taxes.

President John Roskovics stated he recently read that the City of Columbus gives 15-year residential tax abatement and several Cleveland suburbs give 10-year residential tax abatement. He stated that as the economy is declining, he is concerned about housing availability. City Manager James Timonere stated the Ohio Revised Code allows municipalities to give a 15-year tax abatement for resident properties; however, the City does not follow that and gives a seven-year abatement for residential properties and 10-year for commercial. The ORC also allows for 100 percent abatement for commercial properties and the City gives between 50 and 75 percent. City Manager James Timonere stated the only way to make certain properties affordable is with a tax abatement. In terms of rental properties, even though the property owners are profiting, the tenants would see higher rent costs without the tax abatement. City Manager James Timonere stated he feels that tax abatement is an important economic tool. School districts are not receiving less money because of them. While the City is not receiving property taxes on those properties while the abatement is in effect, there are other income drivers, such as income tax and sales tax, that come back to the City. Ward 3 Councilor RoLesia Holman stated that comparing tax abatement in Columbus and Cleveland with Ashtabula is unfair due to the difference in the population. She stated that the City should not be allowing 100 percent tax abatement because tax dollars pay for various City services, such as police and fire services, for residents.

Motion: Ward 1 Councilor Kym Foglio moved to approve the City Manager's request; President John Roskovics seconded.

Discussion: The City participates in the program without knowing what the cost per ton will be. The State accumulates all the quantities. This year, the State required the City to commit to purchasing 85 percent of its quota. Once the salt needs are aggregated by the State, the total will be put out to bid. The City will be required to purchase 85 percent of the total determined by the State.

Motion passed.

A resolution imposing a moratorium on specific zoning and land uses within the City of Ashtabula.

Motion: Ward 5 Councilor Jane DiGiacomo moved to approve the City Manager's request; Ward 4 Councilor Jodi Mills seconded.

Discussion: There are 12 specific areas that have been identified: accessory structures over 200 square feet; addiction treatment facilities including both inpatient and outpatient; auto and truck rentals; boarding or rooming housing unless they are certified by the Ohio Recovery Housing Board; check cashing and/or payday lending; convenience and/or dollar stores; e-cigarette; vaping and/or tobacco sales; food trucks with permanent locations; junkyards or scrapyards; motor vehicle fuel dispensing locations (gas stations); thrift and/or secondhand stores; and, used and/or new motor vehicle sales. The moratorium would not impact current businesses. This would be a temporary pause while the zoning and master plan are updated. There will need to be some discussion. City Manager James Timonere stated that the Solicitor has concerns about some of the items and, while he appreciates the Solicitor's input, there are certain items on the list that he feels very strongly about. He stated he has seen other communities place moratoriums on these items. However, he recognizes that just because one community does it, does not necessarily make it right. City Solicitor Cecilia Cooper stated that there is at least one item on the list that there is case law stating it is unconstitutional. She suggested Council having 12 ordinances rather than one, so each item can be considered and voted on individually. City Manager James Timonere encouraged Council members to discuss what they would like to include in the ordinance, with the advice of legal counsel, and pass one ordinance. Council will hold three readings. City Manager James Timonere stated this is a request to draft legislation, and he encourages Council members to reach out to him and his staff to discuss why some of these items are being identified as problematic. President John Roskovics stated that Council members will have the opportunity to discuss the matter as a group in an open meeting on April 21 and May 5. If they can agree on what should be included, they will then request that the Solicitor's Office draft legislation accordingly. City Manager James Timonere suggested discussing it at the next Community Development/Economic Development/Parks & Recreation Committee meeting on May 7.

Motion passed.

City Manager James Timonere stated that six to seven of the ordinances presented would not have to come before City Council if the City's spending threshold were increased. There is a $10,000 spending limit per the City Charter. Increasing the spending limit would require a Charter change to be placed on the ballot for voters to decide on. City Manager James Timonere stated costs are continuing to increase. He asked the Council to consider increasing the spending limit to between $30,000 and $50,000 to get things done quicker.

The March 3 Regular Meeting minutes were approved as presented at the March 17 Regular Meeting. After the minutes were approved, Ward 3 Councilor RoLesia Holman requested that the word "Simulator" be corrected to "Simulation" in reference to the Racial Wealth Gap Simulation mentioned during the public comments. For the Clerk to amend the March 3 Regular Meeting minutes to satisfy the Ward 3 Councilor's request, the City Council must move and second the request to include the correction in the March 3 Regular Meeting minutes.

Ward 1 Councilor Kym Foglio asked if the resident specifically said "Simulation" or "Simulator." Clerk of Council Stacy Millberg stated that the resident did not say either word, and referred to the Racial Wealth Gap Simulation as the "Wage Gap." Ward 1 Councilor Kym Foglio stated the word "Simulator" should be removed from the minutes completely and corrected to reflect exactly what the resident said.

Motion: President John Roskovics moved to amend the minutes; Ward 1 Councilor Kym Foglio seconded.

Discussion: None.

Unfinished Business

Ward 3 Councilor RoLesia Holman stated that on January 21, the Ad Hoc Committee created a list of recommendations to address racial health inequities in the City. Out of the four recommendations that came from the Ashtabula County Juvenile Courts, one item was addressed, and the others were not. Of the 13 additional recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee, none were addressed. Ward 4 Councilor Jodi Mills asked if information was obtained regarding costs and firms to conduct an equity audit. Council President Roskovics stated he believes the City Council was advised by the Solicitor's Office to hold off due to changes in Washington taking place. City Solicitor Cecilia Cooper stated if the Council decides to move forward with an equity audit, a request for proposals would have to be prepared, and it would need to go through the bidding process. The proposals would then have to be reviewed, and a firm would be chosen to conduct the audit. City Solicitor Cecilia Cooper stated she did not know who would put together the RFP, but that would be the next step if Council chose to move forward with the equity audit.

New Business

Ward 5 Councilor Jane DiGiacomo stated a resident suggested starting a Neighborhood Beautification Program in the City. City Manager James Timonere asked that the information be forwarded to him, and he would look into it further to see what is involved.

City Manager James Timonere stated that curbside leaf bag pick-up begins April 14. Crews will pick up in the wards the week of April 14 and in the Harbor the week of April 21. Residents are asked to refrain from bringing leaf bags to Public Works and wait for them to be picked up curbside.

Information on the routes is located on the City's website.

City Manager James Timonere asked that the City Council consider resolutions for three longtime employees of the Ashtabula City Police Department, Jim Oatman, Jay Janek, and Gerald Cornelius, who retired this year.

Motion: Ward 2 Councilor Terence Guerriero moved to approve the City Manager's request; Ward 4 Councilor Jodi Mills seconded.

Discussion: None.

Motion passed.

Tell Us Something We Don't Know

Ward 4 Councilor Jodi Mills stated that the Sidewalk Reimbursement Program is a great program for City residents to get reimbursed for making improvements to their property. Residents apply at City Hall and must complete the project to receive reimbursement. City Manager James Timonere stated applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The City allocates $20,000 for the program. City officials will measure and notify residents how much they will be reimbursed. Residents cover the costs up front and submit receipts for reimbursement.
